

KS2 Class Teacher

Bishop Harvey Goodwin Church of England (VA) School

We are seeking an enthusiastic and dedicated KS2 Class Teacher to join our welcoming Church of England primary school, where our Christian values shape everything we do. If you're passionate about nurturing children academically, spiritually and personally, you'll find a strong sense of purpose and community here.

You'll lead a vibrant KS2 class, delivering engaging lessons that inspire curiosity and confidence. As part of our school family, you'll help children grow in wisdom, compassion and resilience, guided by our core Christian values of respect, hope, friendship and forgiveness.

Salary: Main Pay Range (MPR), dependent on experience.

We're looking for someone who:

- Builds strong, caring relationships with pupils, families and colleagues
- Embraces and models our Christian ethos in daily school life
- Brings creativity, warmth and high expectations to the classroom
- Is committed to professional growth and reflective practice

We offer:

- Pupils who are enthusiastic, thoughtful and eager to learn
- A supportive, faith-led school community
- Strong leadership and pastoral support
- Opportunities for continued professional development

Visits to the school are warmly welcomed and can be arranged by contacting Teresa Calvert at admin@bishopharveygoodwin.cumbria.sch.uk. If you have any questions or queries about the role, please contact Kate Holland, Headteacher, on 01228 590794.

Safeguarding Statement

Bishop Harvey Goodwin CE School is committed to safeguarding and promoting the welfare of children and young people. We expect all staff and volunteers to share this commitment.

This post is subject to:
